The Dormice children loved celebrating the King's Coronation last week!

Dormice managed to enjoy some time outside in-between the rain showers

The Badgers have been exploring initial sounds within the woodland theme this week... Bill the Badger left all his toys in the woods, and we had to help find them... we had a clue: Bill's toys all began with the bbb sound. Well done guys, we found a bike, a ball and a button – but the sausage must have belonged to Suzie Squirrel! Fabulous listening this week everyone.

Forest School is about trying out new experiences and testing yourself. George makes his way up the branch ladder, towards the platform set in the holly tree.

Last week we planted salad vegetables and this week we are planting pulses. Tommy gently lowers the mangetout seedling into the hole he has made and tucks the compost all around.
