

13th October 2017

☀️☀️☀️☀️☀️ Split newsletter today... ☀️☀️☀️☀️☀️

Some of us are looking forward to half term - some of us will stay to play!

Next week is half term for some!

If you are a term time member of the nursery then we will wave bye bye today, and see you again during the week beginning 30th October. Those who play all year round will enjoy a quieter space to play, and lots of opportunities for exciting adventures.

When we get back we will be celebrating Vocations Week with the school.

This means we will get a visit from the police, and the fire service! And here is the important bit: on the Friday of that week: 3rd November we will all be dressing up (staff too!) as what we would like to be when we grow up!

Spotlight on...
'visitors'

We were really lucky this week, Miss Anupa spent time sharing her Diwali celebration plans with us. She brought in food to taste, clothes to wear, objects to look at and kindly answered lots of questions to help us understand.

When we get back from the half term holiday we have visits planned from the police and fire brigade...

Visits like this are really important for us in nursery, real people with real experiences help the world come alive for us and we learn to appreciate the world and the people around us.

If you feel you could share a fantastic experience or a wonderful career with us, please let us know. We would love to welcome you to nursery, to find out more!

Joke of the week:

Q: What goes snap, crackle and squeak?

A: Mice krispies
