Letter sound of the week

Lost snugglies...

Two lost snuggle blankets have been found in the carpark... they are currently being looked after in the office! One is stripy, the other has an elephant - similar to this...

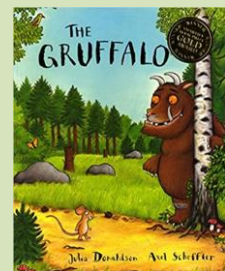

Forest School Message:

As the weather gets colder, don't forget gloves and hats, as well as comfy layers that fit under the waterproofs...

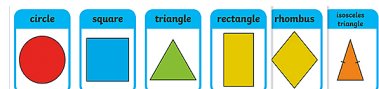

Extra socks, thick ones, are also useful for keeping feet warm in wellies... thank you x

We loved our story this week - a familiar book is always a pleasure as everyone joins in with such enthusiasm!
