What have we been doing this week?

I can hardly remember, it's been so very very busy, and quite a challenge to fit everything in... On Monday we all took part in a Bhangra Dance lesson as we joined in with the whole school One World Week. Then Tuesday was Pancake Day... AND St. David's Day, so we made and ate pancakes, and then made some lovely daffodils to take home! Wednesday the Badgers watched a lovely puppet show, all about the parable of The Lost Sheep... and then, if that wasn't enough – it's been World Book Day today!!! Thank you so much to everyone who joined us dressing up today, we had a lovely day, sharing our favourite stories.

Spotlight on :

Author: Michael Rosen

The author of our favourite story 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt' is going to further promote the importance of reading to under-fives in his new role as the BookTrust's Writer in Residence

He said, 'We know that helping children start life playing with words, poems and songs is the perfect way to become a confident speaker and writer. Under-fives soak up language and we can help make that happen by sharing books with them. I want to do all I can to offer some ideas and inspiration to help carers, teachers and anyone who works with under-fives.'
