

3rd April 2020

Hello everyone!

I hope as always that you are all well, happy and safe. We have been undertaking training this week, from home, in order to facilitate face to face communication after Easter and look forward to sharing the details with you soon - I look forward to being able to see all of you on my computer screen soon so that we can wave, say hello, share news and learn together. Have a good week! from Miss Lisa x
