Joke of the week!

When do you go at red and stop at green?

When you're eating a watermelon!!!

Please cover your child with an 'all-day' suncream before coming in – and let us have a named cream if you want us to 'top them up', also if you could send in a hat that can stay in nursery, that would be lovely!

Thank you

Spotlight on...

Ready for Reception!

As our pre-school children come toward the end of this academic year, their thoughts (and parent's thoughts too!) are beginning to turn to Reception class in September...

We work hard with our children to prepare them for this next big step, from meeting the teachers, to peeping next door to see what's going on, and watching the current reception children as they play. This has some lovely ideas for things you can do at home to make the transition as easy as possible.

The Dormice children have been trying to find the seaside creatures hiding in their habit!

"Look, it's turning to a different colour! What's happening?" exclaims Amos as he blends purple and red into mauve.

Hedgehogs shared the storybook 'Holiday Magic' about a boy made from pebbles. Jasper's very proud of his pebble boy.

A gleeful giggle from Matilda as she scales the lashed-branch ladder, leading up to the platform in the holly tree.

Hari tests himself, swinging out over the slope.

The Badgers have been thinking about Pirates and Mermaids... in maths we explored more and fewer... in phonics: initial sounds.
