

29th September 2017

Next week we will continue with our Autumn theme

Our book will be...

Thank you for sending in your wellies - we are loving the muddy digging place outside!

We will be:

Reading 'Bear Snores On, talking about Autumn things to see, smell, taste, hear and feel, collecting leaves outside, thinking about animals that hibernate, writing lists, making flapjack with Miss Gail, playing hide and seek and counting apples high up in the tree!

Spotlight on...
'the library'

We love our new library corner and have had wonderful feedback from parents and the children, who are keen to change their books frequently!

If your book doesn't have words... don't worry - it means your child is now in charge! Let them tell you the story instead, the sillier the better!
